CARDINAL ECHOES

ANDREWS HIGH SCHOOL

1953

Foreword

The "Cardinal Echoes" staff has endeavored to present on the pages which follow a record of the friendships, of the play, and of the work which make up a high school year, in the hope that the memories of it will never be lost to you who have lived it.

CLASS HISTORY

On September 5, 1941, twenty-two boys and girls came through the door of our beloved school and found their way to the first grade room where the teacher, Miss Luella Lewis, awaited them. Those little first graders were: James Crull, Arden Hanselman, Richard King, Edgar Kitt, Alan Knight, James Luker, Jack Millman, Ray Shenefield, Carl Stephan, Donald Wright, William Yahne, Sandra Garrison, Irene Haley, Katherine Keefer, Jane Keffer, Helen Laymon, Phyllis Laymon, Ladonna Millican, Dorothy Prilamen, Shirley Steger, Joane Stephens, and Janis Tullis.

All the new adventures and excitement made that first year pass very quickly and we soon were "big" second graders. We had an enrollment of twenty-five and Miss Ruth Ann Martz was our teacher. That was the year when Huntington Township suffered a terrific loss-----Roderick Goebel left their school and came to us!

In the fall of 1943 Mrs. Walton taught a third grade of twenty-six pupils. The new member was "bashful little" Velma Jean Goebel who moved from Lagro.

The next year twenty-four dignified feeling pupils marched up the stairs to the fourth grade room where Mrs. Wade welcomed us. During the year our enrollment of twenty-four was increased by Jean Riley who came from Galion, Ohio. We remember those long curls that all the other girls eyed with an envious look.

Soon it was again time for twenty-seven of us to enter the fifth grade. That year part of us were in Mrs. Wade's room and the rest went into Miss Fisher's room. The return of Ivan Eugene McDaniel from Roanoke made us all happy.

We were once more a united sixth grade class of twenty-five in 1946 with Miss Fisher as our teacher.

The next year as we entered the seventh grade, valentine boxes, recesses, and the School Time broadcasts became only memories and we considered ourselves very "old and experienced". This feeling, however, was soon replaced when we realized our inexperience compared to upper classmen.

Time rolled by and we became an eighth grade class of twenty-nine pupils. That year we had a new arrival-----dark-eyed Rudy Decker. (sigh, sigh) Mr. Borden was our sponsor and we especially remember him as Gran-pappy at Carl's Halloween party. That spring we donned old fashioned attire and presented an operetta entitled "Living Pictures". We also had a big time out at Camp Herman where we had a weiner roast.

Summer passed and school started once more. This was a great occasion for us because we finally had reached the beginning of our high school years. Our officers for that year were: president, Arden Hanselman; vice president, Bill Yahne; secretary, Dick King; treasurer, Phyllis Laymon. Our first class party was a hayride and a weiner roast in the school yard. Then in the spring we enjoyed a party at Velma Jean Goebel's home. We had twenty-three members in our class with Mrs. Durnbaugh as our sponsor.

In our sophomore year our studies really made us struggle. Our officers were: president, Carl Stephan; vice president, Arden Hanselman; secretary, Janis Tullis; treasurer, Jean Riley. Our first class party was a hayride, and our second party was at Dick King's where we enjoyed a pot luck supper and then went to the drive-in movie. Our class had thinned down to twenty-one and our sponsor was Mr. Hughes.

We entered our junior year with much excitement and high hopes; now we were upper classmen! This year was enlivened by our selling at noon, at the ball games, and our Gaslight Gaities, a bazaar, which we shared with the seniors. And at the end of the year our most exciting prospect awaited us-----the Junior-Senior trip to Washington and New York City. At our first junior class party we had an ice cream party at Phyllis Laymon's, and then went to a movie. At the second one we went to Velma Jean Goebel's home. We gave our first play that year entitled "Rest Assured". Our class consisted of thirteen pupils and our sponsor was Mrs. Burkart. The officers were: president, Arden Hanselman; vice president, Janis Tullis; secretary, Phyllis Laymon; treasurer, Jean Riley. As a class of 13 we made $1,300.

So the years have passed and we find ourselves nearing the end with mixed emotions. After the cast was laid low with a seige of mumps our senior play, "The Atomic Blonde", was given the 8th and 9th of January in spite of bad weather. We are now planning our variety show. We enjoyed a class party at Velma Jean Goebel's home and saw slides from our Junior-Senior trip. Our class has dwindled to twelve pupils and our sponsors are Mrs. Stookey and Mr. Beitelshes. Soon the time will come when we no more can roam the halls of our beloved school. Even though we are leaving, part of our hearts will remain, for it is here that we have laid the foundation for our future. We hope you who remain will appreciate and take advantage of all the opportunities you have. And now as the spirit of good old Andrews High is placed in your hands, we hope you will hold it high---and guard it well.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1953, being of sound mind and strong body, do hereby will and bequeath the following:

Carl Stephan wills Bob Reemer his ability to make the girls mad at him.
Velma Jean Goebel wills her original smile and facial expressions to Donna Lassiter.
Jean Riley wills her willowy figure to LeRoy Hackworth.
Richard King wills his seat in history class to Jack Ferrell.
Phyllis Laymon wills her calm and collected manner to Sondra Detamore.
Bill Yahne wills his long shots to Buddy Tullis.
Janis Tullis wills her ability to differ with classmates to Helen Laymon.
Roderick Goebel wills his parking place to Larry Oswalt.
Richard King wills his desk and tap room combined to LeRoy Hackworth.
Arden Hanselman wills his memory to Mr. Beitelshes so he won't forget so many things.
Edgar Kitt wills Margie Wallace his loud voice so people can understand her readings.
Roderick Goebel wills all of his comic books to Gene McClintick.
The senior boys will Mr. Borden a quiet assembly.
The senior class wills Mrs. Stookey a class that can agree on matters.
The senior boys will Mrs. Smith a less boisterous home economics class next year.
Jean, Velma Jean, and Phyllis will to Mr. Hyman the basketball boys' training rules that pertain to mid-week dates.
Phyllis Laymon and Ike McDaniel will their seats in the assembly to Morris Bitzer and Lou Ann Rudig.
Rudy Decker and Arden Hanselman will Mrs. Leakey two brighter students for advanced algebra class.
Carl Stephan wills Jack Ferrell his seat in the assembly so he won't be able to reach the chalk tray for erasers to throw.
Janis Tullis wills to Margie Wallace her advice to the lovelorn department.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

The scene opens on a large Texas cattle ranch. The year is 1965. The owner, Carl Stephan, and his family of three are sitting in their luxurious living room watching television. The variety of acts is getting rather boring until a famous name flashes across the screen and a fanfare is heard that makes the Stephens sit up in their seats. Roderick "Giggles" Goebel, the new Jerry Lewis, is announced with his famous partner, Vernie King. Roderick and Richard King have swept the country with their comedian and drum act. Dick with his drums and Roderick with his comedy have made themselves millionaires. Vernie King, master of the drums, begins to play a stirring drum composition of his own that literally makes the Stephens sit up in their seats and take notice.

"Dick King was an old classmate of yours wasn't he, Carl?"

"Yes, and quite a character he was. Oh, by the way, I got a letter from Bill Yahne. He coaches at Andrews now. He said that he lead the Cardinals to victory in both the county and sectional tourneys for the past five years. He has had two undefeated seasons since he has been there, too. He and his wife are planning to come down next week and spend a few days with us."

"Wonderful, but I have all of those old books and newspapers piled in the guest room. You will have to help me move them, Carl."

"Yes, dear, be there in a minute."

As the Stephens begin to stack papers, Carl runs across a box of newspaper clippings.

"Look, dear, here is Phyllis Laymon's wedding picture. She married that rich New York tycoon, you know."

"What ever became of Ike, Carl?"

"Who? Oh, Ivan Eugene McDaniel. He was the preacher at the Andrews Brethern Church the last I heard of him. He is also trustee in Andrews, and does wonderful mechanical work on the side. Rudy Decker is still in Andrews, too. He married a few years ago. Sent me an invitation, but I couldn't go. That was just when that big oil deal went over and I bought that well."

Janis Tullis lives in Huntington now. She has been Mrs. Drake Omstead for quite a number of years. They have eight redhaired boys and one blackhaired girl."

Carl puts the clippings aside and begins to browse through some books.

"Well, can you imagine that?"

"What, dear?"

"Listen to this - Arden Hanselman, Hollywood movie lover, divorces fourth wife. I wonder who he is married to now. And here is Edgar Kitt's picture. It says here that he opens his first show since he came out of the Air Force. He sings at the Metropolitan Opera House in a few weeks. We'll have to go see him. They say that the last time he sang there, so many lady autograph seekers mobbed him that he had to hire a body guard of twenty policemen. He surely can sing!"

Carl takes some junk away and comes back to find his wife pondering over two clippings.

"Carl, haven't you mentioned these two names before?"

"Yes, this one is Jean Riley. Her last art exhibit was a great success. She is in Paris now. Velma Jean Goebel is a Powers model now, pretty, too."

I surely wish I was back in school with all of those kids again. Those were the good old days, but we didn't realize it then. Yes, sir, I left a wonderful class when I graduated from Andrews with the class of '53".

Wen 8 Lost 2

Second place in the County Baseball Conference

The Andrews Cardinals put together 82 runs and 94 hits while our opponents scored 39 runs and 45 hits. This gave us a season record of 8 wins and 2 losses and second place in the Huntington County Baseball Conference.

Our first game we had a couple of bad breaks and Roanoke took advantage of them. Also our 6 errors didn't help any as they only got 3 earned runs. Bill Yahne hurled for us, giving up 10 hits. Arden Hanselman and Bud Tullis each got 2 hits to lead us in hitting.

The second game was a lot better as we scored 12 runs and got 11 hits to Union's 0 runs and 2 hits. Gerald Yentes got the mound assignment from Coach Hyman and allowed 2 hits. Ed Kitt got 3 hits in 4 times at bat to lead the way.

Our next game with Bippus was a thriller all the way and wasn't decided until the last man was out. We jumped off to an early lead on Bob Reamer's home run and with Bill pitching beautiful ball. Then Bippus got to Bill and crept up on us. Yentes then came in to pitch and put out the fire. We scored 2 runs in the 6th inning to pull it out of the fire.

We came back home for our next game with Clear Creek and defeated the Bulldogs 6 to 3 behind Gerald Yentes, who pitched a 5 hit ball game. Once again Ed Kitt pounded out 2 hits in 3 times at the plate for batting honors.

We then traveled to Jefferson and had a field day pounding out 15 runs and 12 hits while Bill held them to 7 hits and 5 runs. Gerald took batting honors with 3 hits in 3 times at bat.

Our next game with Lancaster was played on a muddy Andrews field but was close all the way. Yahne held them to 4 hits and Parrett held us to 4 hits but we got 3 runs to their 1.

With rain threatening to pour down any minute we took a 7 to 0 lead in the Monument City game. At the end of the first half of the 4th inning the heavens opened up and it began to pour. Just about then everybody was mad because it wasn't much of a game. Most of us had gotten hits and Carl's home run didn't count. When we tried to re-schedule the game it seemed as though we couldn't agree on a date. So Monument's coach said if it is alright with you we will call it a finished game. So everything turned out alright anyway.

Our game with Warren was rained out the first time, but not the second, although it should have been. We committed 19 errors while Bill gave only 5 hits and of course we were defeated 13 to 7. Carl and Joe Ferrara got 4 of the 7 hits off Wilson, their pitcher.

BASEBALL (continued)

We defeated Rock Creek easily 8 to 2 and Phil Hyman found a new pitching star, Arden Hanselman, who fired a 2 hitter. Joe's triple was the big blow for us.

We swamped Huntington Township 13 to 1 in our final game of the year, but it was marred by a mishap when Arnold Miller knocked himself out and broke his nose. He ran into the flag pole while chasing a fly ball before the game.

Arden Hanselman missed a no-hitter when Barber punched a single into center field in the 5th inning. He then missed a shutout when Ed Kitt let the ball get away from him on a peg which was meant to pick Swain off third base.

All in all we had a very good year in baseball although we wish that we had won the championship.

We shall lose Kitt, Yahne, Hanselman, Stephan, and our speed demon, Rudy Decker; but we'll be back trying when the season rolls around again.

Congratulations go to Ed Kitt for his batting championship of 500 and Joe Ferrara for runner up with 400, also to Bill Yahne, Arden Hanselman, and Gerald Yentes for their fine pitching and to Bob Reemer and Carl Stephan, the 2 home run hitters.

Congratulations go to Coach Phil Hyman and the whole team for a very successful baseball season.

HIGH SCHOOL MIXED CHORUS

There are forty-eight members in our mixed chorus this year. The first semester we sang for the December P.T.A. meeting and took part in the annual Christmas program. In the second semester we participated in the County Music Festival in which we had a chance to sing in a large chorus which brings about many new experiences in the music world. Mrs. Steekey is the director of our school chorus.

CHOIR

A new organization, the High School Choir, was formed in the music department this year. Sixteen selected voices were chosen from the mixed chorus. This group appeared in a number of special activities throughout the year. They sang several numbers for the December P.T.A. meeting, for the Kitchen Maid Christmas Party, the annual Christmas Carol Sing held in our school, and for the Baccalaureate service.

THE SENIOR PLAY

66 "THE ATOMIC BLONDE" 22

Synopsis

Bob Nickerson and Skid Werling are co-owners of an old broken-down summer resort hotel. The boys must pay off a mortgage note in ten days or else! They believe all their troubles are solved when Maisie de Wolfe, the famous novelist, writes that she is coming as a guest. Maisie has been publicized as "The Atomic Blonde" and the boys think she will draw many customers.

However, complications arise and, to add to the general hysteria, a Headless Ghost keeps popping up and frightening folks into fits - especially the darky servants, Parsy and Oriole.

THANK YOU!

Because of you, our sponsors and patrons, we have our 1952-53 yearbook. Because of you, we can enjoy through the years this picture story of our high school years. Because of you, we have a yearbook that will often bring happiness to the students of our school and to the parents and friends who can enjoy with them the memories portrayed on these pages. To you, our sponsors and patrons, we are truly grateful.
